

GIS day

Wednesday, Nov. 15th
Celebrating Geography Awareness Week!

MAP, DATA & GIS LIBRARY Department of Geography & Tourism Studies

Tourism and Geography Society (TAGS)

11:30 a.m. TAGS Pizza Lunch (minimal cost)

12 - 2:00 p.m. Esri Scholarship Competition

- ❖ Kyle Rankin, 4th yr BA Geography, Geomatics
A GIS Approach to on-ice Hockey Analytics: a case of the Brampton Beast.
- ❖ Mackenzie Ceci, 4th yr BSc Geography
Utilizing GIS to Assess Structural Forest Change in Response to Forest Fire Events
- ❖ Hyun-Suk Lee, MSc candidate, CCOVI/Biological Science
Zoning the vineyards by NDVI data from unmanned aerial vehicles (UAVs) and mapping variability of the vineyards in Ontario, Canada
- ❖ Brent Thorne, MSc candidate, Earth Sciences
Geographic data science (GDS) approaches to GIS methods in identifying relations affecting lake-rich permafrost landscapes.
- ❖ Margaret Hughes, MSc candidate, Biological Sciences
Evaluation of the use of perimeter plantings in increasing biodiversity and establishment of ecosystem services.
- ❖ Bryan Giordano, PhD candidate, Centre for Biotechnology
Geospatial Analysis of Thirteen West Nile Virus Vectors (Diptera: Culicidae) in Southern Ontario, Canada
- ❖ Colin Mackenzie, 3rd yr, BA History
Intertwined Towns: Mapping the Interurban Railway through time in St. Catharines, Thorold, Welland and Port Colborne

2:00 p.m. Cake!

2:30 p.m. GIS Jeopardy!

Enter a team – win Ice Dogs tickets!

Trivia, Contests, Draws, Prizes, CAKE!!

