

Incidence of Low Income

(the percent of economic families or unattached individuals living below the low income cut-offs)

