

Males in Occupations Unique to Primary Industries*

as a percentage of the total male labour force

* Occupations in this broad category are primarily concerned with operating farms and supervising or doing farm work; operating fishing vessels and doing specialized fishing work; and in doing supervision and production in oil and gas production and forestry and logging.