

Males and Females in Finance and Business Occupations*

as a percentage of the total labour force

* Occupations in this broad category are primarily concerned with providing financial and business services, administrative and regulatory services and clerical support services.