

Males and Females in Health Occupations*

as a percentage of the total labour force

* Occupations in this broad category are primarily concerned with providing health care services directly to patients and providing support to health care delivery.