

Females in Management Occupations*

as a percentage of the total female labour force

* Occupations in this broad category are primarily concerned with carrying out the functions of management by planning, organizing, co-ordinating, directing, controlling, staffing, formulating and implementing or enforcing policy.

